

The background of the entire page is a photograph of various textile art pieces. On the left side, there is a vertical line of approximately ten colorful fabric balls, each made from different patterns and colors of fabric (including purple, green, blue, and orange) and bound with orange thread. To the right of these balls is a long, narrow, fringed fabric strip, primarily orange with some pink and purple threads, also bound with orange thread. The items are laid out on a light-colored, textured surface.
